Manager Sanger Accuses Corbett's Manager Before the Lexow Committee.

WRESTLER MULDOON INVOLVED.

He Agreed to Fix the Police for Corbett-Mitchell Fight for a Percentage of the Receipts.

Before the regular session of th Lexow Committee began to-day there were rumore that Mr. Goff was preparing some big surprises for the investi-gators and, incidentally, the public.

PRANK W. SANGER The first sensation of the day was fur-nished by Frank W. Sanger, the theatrical manager, who swore that during the sparring exhibition given by Corbett and Mitchell at the Madison Square Garden lest February, Brady, Corbett's manager drew $250 from the box-office to Corbett pay for police protection.

which was to have been held in Madison Square Garden.
Editor Gallagher, of the Illustrated News testified that Brady admitted that 5 per cent of the net receipts was to go to "Mr. Policeman."

The French ball was the next question upon which testimony was taken. Gustave Doroal. President of the Society, declared that he never paid a cent for police protection, and got rather tangled on the Excise question. He understood that Madison Square Garden was protected by an all-night license, but had never seen it.

"I have heard all about it," said Mr.
Moss, "and the story is nonsense. He isn't crazy at all, although the police would like to make it appear so.

"He is as sane as he ever was, but ever since he gave his testimony he has been persecuted and hounded by those who would like to drive him out of town. We are looking into the matter now."

Benator O'Connor presided in the Chairman's absence and called the Committee to order at 11.39.

Mr. Goff called for Mr. Brady as the first witness and a young man came forward and said Mr. Brady had not arrived but was expected every minute.

Mr. Sanger testified he was afterwards informed that Mr. Brady owed the Garden $17, and he wrote to him to pay it over.

Q. You knew the money Brady asked for was to be paid for police protection? A. No. str; that is, not exactly for that purpose. I had seen supt. Byrace previously about a parade that was being arranged to escort Corbett to the Garden.

Q. But that didn't have anything to do with the £500 you let Brady draw? A. Oh, no.

Had No Thought of Protection. Q. Well, wasn't it well understood that that money was to be paid to the Captain for police protection? A. I didn't give it a thought at 'he time. I knew he wanted it for something, and supposed it was all right. Q. Didn't you know that you were not under gate Francis H. Woods.

Senator Hill Opposed Him, but Finally Withdrew His Objections.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.-The Presilent to-day sent to the Senate the nomnation of Francis H. Woods to The President has also nominated Lu-lelphus W. Mason, postmaster at Me chanic Falls, Me.; Alfred Dow, at Belows Falls, Vt.; Henry W. Stocker, at Windsor, Vt., and sent to the Senate 163 nominations of postmaster's appointed during the recess,

A Washington dispatch says:
Francis H. Woods, appointed to-day as Festmaster at A'bany. New York, was the Presh'ent's personal selection. He made known his desire to appoint Woods, who is an ex-Judge of the Surrogate Court and an eminent lawyer, over a year ago, but at that time Benator Hill was strenuously opposed to his appointment and suggested quite a number of other names.

Gen. Tracey, the Albany Congressman, expressed his acquisscence in the President's selection, but it was said that Mr. Cleveland was unwilling to make the appointment until Mr. Hill should also signify his acquisscence.

This, it is said by Gen. Tracey, Mr. Hill has done since the election and the appointment was accordingly made. Senator Murphy says that the appointment is satisfactory.

Woods was opposed to the Herrick faction at Albany, and also has opposed Senator Hill inside the party, but has also stood up square for the ticket when nominated. In the late campaign he supported Senator Hill for Governor.

Francis H. Woods, appointed Postmaster at Albany, was formerly Surrogate of Albany County. He is about fifty-two years of age, and a bright and capable lawyer. He was at one time identified with the Hill faction of the Democracy, but was the choice of both wings of the party.

cial meeting this afternoon, to consider several important subjects concerning trade, commerce and good government. The meeting was largely attended. Alxander E. Orr presided. The main subjects of disc cver, centered in the work of the Lexuw Committee, and in the President's message to Congress. It was in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce that the first steps were taken for the appointment of the Lexow Committee. It was there that a petition to the Legislature there that a petition to the Legislature was first drawn, and it was there that the scheme for the appointment of the Committee of Seventy originated.

At to-day's meeting the members reviewed the evidence of police corruption as shown before the Benate Committee. In the middle of the discussion Charles Stewart Smith, chairman of the Seventy arose and offered a resolu-tion even more sweeping in its terms than that which led to the police ex-posure. The preamble and resolutions are as follows:

the Chair to Inquire and report at referred to the suggestions of corruption in the Excise, Street-Cleaning, Fire and other departments and to the exposures of "The World." Every telling point was applauded vigorously. Then the resolu-tion was adopted by a unanimous votation was adopted by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Smith said he had spoken to Mr. and spoken to his matter, and he expressed a hope that the Chamber should take such action. He also stated that Joseph H. Choate said that he knew great corporations in this city were paying money for protection to the Legislature the for protection to the Legislature the same as houses of ill-fame paid to the police for protection. The following Committee was appoint The following Committee was appointed: Charles S. Smith, Gustav Schwab, A. C. Bernheim, John Harsen Rhoades and J. Edward Simmons.

It is understood that Mr. Smith's action was taken after consultation with several members of the Lexow Committee. The Legislature will be asked before Jan. 15 to carry out the suggestions of the resolution.

The subject of tariff legislation came up on a report signed by a committee, consisting of Mesars. F. B. Thurber, James McCreery and Gustav H. Schwab. The report which was adopted, concluded with a resolution that while the existing tariff may not be entirely satisfactory, there should be no further agitation of the subject at the present time, in order that the commercial interests of the country could get a much-needed rest. The same Committee reported resolutions calling upon the Government to reinforce our fleet in Chinese waters; to reinforce our fleet in Chinese waters; asking Congress to pass an amendment to the Inter-State Commerce law permitting railroads to make pooling agreements; favoring a new Custom-Houss, and protesting against the plan to add a few stories to the present building, and calling upon the Government to continue the representation of agricultural products abroad.

Other resolution were adopted suppointing committees to investigate fire laws and electrical appliances. The Japanese Trenty Referred. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. & .- The Seusie was
